Maths

Times tables practice

Today

Please focus on your 3x and 4x tables. It has been a while since we did them in school and it will be good to have a refresh!

Make sure you are practicing your times tables! Little and often is best.

Maths

Fluent in 5 style questions

Today we are looking at addition!

Have you read today?

Music Week 1 Lesson 1

We are going to start the theme of our Wonderful World by listening to a piece of music from a British composer (Vaughan Williams) describing the countryside. You will then compose your own music describing the countryside by using objects you can find in your house.

Or if you know how to play an instrument, get it out of its case or sit down at the piano and be ready to compose!!!

The lesson can be found in this link
