WALT: Jump with Power

● Reception/KS1:

Warm Up: Cross the Swamp: Create a start & finish line. Between the lines add 2/3 objects that children must avoid to safely get to the other side. How many times can the children cross the swamp in 30 seconds?

Challenge:

Kangaroo bounce:

The aim of this challenge is to jump as far as you can. To begin find a starting point using a cone or shoe. Jump forwards as far as you can and use a different object to mark where you land. To measure count how many steps it takes back to the start.

Too Easy: Try to hop as far as you can

Too Tough: Try using a 1 step run up

● KS2:

Warm Up: Jump Yourself: Use two objects to measure yourself lying down from head to toe. Stand up and see if you can jump over yourself, how many jumps would it take to jump the length of Mum/Dad/siblings

Challenge:

Squat Challenge:

The aim of this challenge is to show your power for the whole 60 seconds. How many squat jumps can you perform in 60 seconds? Stand behind a line and jump forwards, perform a squat and repeat.

Finding it Easy – Try and practice for 30 seconds

Finding it tough – Try compete against a family member

Another great week Team Sycamore!

Well done for not only continuing your hard work, but in many case, improving it. We could not be more proud of you all. Keep it up!

Relax and watch this film Sweet Cocoon, It's all about teamwork and being selfless for other people.

Have a good weekend. Relax, keep away from screens if you can and share some giggles
